

Thinking Maps®

Path to Proficiency for English Language Learners

Workshop Description

This valuable resource provides practical applications for guiding students from the lowest to the highest levels of language proficiency. The three-day course is designed for educators who have been trained in Thinking Maps and who want to lead their schools in acquiring additional information about how Thinking Maps can be extended and adapted to meet the needs of English language learners. Participants will learn how Thinking Maps can be used to assist with research-based English learner strategies and guide the development of differentiated lesson plans for all language proficiency levels of English learners.
